

Do you want to be part of an exciting new TV series looking at driving practices in Ireland?

We are looking for Irish motorists to take part in a number of day-long driving track tests to see how various factors affect our driving ability.

We are looking for people from all adult age groups, a mix of men and women and from all parts of the country. Our only condition is you must have a valid full Irish drivers licence.

We are particularly interested in meeting people with a less than perfect driving history, be it penalty points for speeding, mobile phone use, drink driving, etc.

To apply please email your name, contact info, a recent photo and a brief paragraph on your driving history to:
